Richard Keifer reported fire runs 138-141.

A resident attended the meeting to ask the board if the zoning regulations on line where up to date. He was informed that it is current but there have been a few minor price updates.

Tracy Punches brought up the recent damage to Pratt Lane. Rita Foos stated that she thought the work should be professionally done. Tracy Punches and Eric Flora agreed and added that the road should be "cut" and properly repaired. Rita Foos to contact Gerken Paving, Inc. to get an estimate.

Tracy Punches said that he inspected the problem trees on Euler Road and believes that the trees are in the right of way. It was discussed and agreed that Terry Green should have someone present when working on the trees.

Rita Foos mentioned that she talked to Linda Holmes about the fence that is in the right of way on Milton Road. Linda thought we should talk to the property owner about the danger of having a fence so close to the road along with the danger and liability of parking in the road to open the gate. Rita Foos is going to talk to the property owner.

The meeting was adjourned.
